together
it's possible

Helping you experience
the world

Kina offers a range of international services to support hassle-free international travel and business.

We are proudly committed to supporting and facilitating international trade that delivers prosperity for our customers and Papua New Guinea. Our friendly staff can provide advice on which services best suits your needs.

Foreign Currency Notes

Travelling overseas? Kina Bank can provide a small supply of most major foreign currencies to help you cover incidentals on arrival. We can also exchange back into kina currency any unspent foreign notes on your return.

International Payments and Receipts

Let us facilitate your overseas payments and receipts via Telegraphic Transfer or Bank Draft.

- Available in all freely convertible currencies
- Competitive rates, updated daily.

Forward Exchange

Subject to BPNG approval*, we can facilitate forward purchase or sale of foreign currency for your imports or exports.

- Indicative quotes available on request

Foreign Currency Accounts and Deposits

Subject to BPNG approval, we can facilitate a foreign currency account or deposits if required for your business.

- Available in all freely convertible currencies
- Interest rates based on rates in the home country of the currency concerned.

Clean Collections

Have an overseas cheque that needs banking? We can send it overseas and collect your funds for you.

* Availability also subject to Central Bank rules in the currency concerned.

Documentary Collections

Have your suppliers' bank send your import documents to us for efficient handling and processing.

- All documents in the one place for your convenience.
- Simple payment options.

Documentary Credits – Import & Export

We can advise on export letters of credit and issue import letters of credit if required, subject to credit approval.

We guide you through the entire process, from completion of application to the receipt and payment of documents.
