

ANNOUNCING KINA'S BRAND AMBASSADOR

PNG's financial institution Kina Securities Limited today announced Papua New Guinea's very own Sydney-based professional tennis player, Abigail Tere-Apisah as Kina's new Brand Ambassador.

Kina Group CEO, Syd Yates said Kina is proud to have Miss Tere-Apisah as Kina's Brand Ambassador recognising the very strong and ongoing relationship Kina has with the PNG Sports.

"Supporting our community through sports in Papua New Guinea is one of Kina's key aims allowing us to give back to the local sports," said Mr Yates. "Miss Tere-Apisah has a current WTA ranking; singles 361 and doubles 386 and she has a bright future in tennis ahead of her."

"I am delighted to be representing Kina as their new Brand Ambassador," said Miss Tere-Apisah. "I will be proudly wearing the Kina brand on my tennis gear."

Miss Tere-Apisah is scheduled to attend tournaments in New Zealand, Australia, USA and Great Britain for the remaining months of this year, right through to the New Year.

For further information:
Carolyn Ive
Group Manager, Communications
+675 719 92 825